STUDENTS RIGHT TO CANCEL:

The student has the right to cancel and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. The student has the right to a full refund of all charges if he/she cancels this agreement by submitting a Delancey Street Academy drop or withdrawal form, handed in to the administration office prior to close of business on Monday of the second week of the session.

In addition, the student may withdraw from a course after instruction has started by submitting a drop or withdrawal form and receive a pro-rated refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges if the student has completed 60% or less of the instruction. If the student has received federal student financial aid funds, the student is entitled to a refund of monies not paid from federal student financial aid program funds. Refunds will be made within 30 days of cancellation or withdrawal. Students who have completed 60% or less of the period of attendance shall receive a pro-rata refund.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur.

1. The federal or state government or a loan guarantee agency may take action against the student, including applying any income tax refund to which the person is entitled to reduce the balance owed on the loan; and
2. The student may not be eligible for any other federal student financial aid at another institution or other governmental financial assistance until the loan is repaid.

Delancey Street Academy charges no monies in any aspect and no student requires loans, grants or any financing during the duration of the institution. Thus a refund policy does not apply.
